

INTRODUCTION

“Start the music while introducing James”

James "Bird" Guess was once homeless after high school, yet he personally financed his way through college and graduated with hopes of climbing the corporate ladder and becoming a rich executive. But after only working a year in "Corporate America," James' ambition and goals outgrew his corporate career plan and he decided to quit his job and risk everything to go after wealth, success, and the "American Dream."

Starting with only $1,000 saved from college, poor credit, and a dream to become a millionaire, James single-handedly built a quarter million dollar enterprise selling products from the trunk of his car.

After expanding his business model from retailer to wholesaler, he made over a half million dollars, cashed out and invested in rental property, and decided to pursue his passion more than profit.

James is now the President & Founder of JBG International Success Academy, a personal and organizational development company specializing in the training and development of working professionals, entrepreneurs, students, and organizations, to go from where they are to where they want to be and achieve their greatest potential. He is also a world-renowned speaker on change, leadership and financial empowerment and the best selling author of the book How I Made A Quarter Million Dollar$ From the Trunk of My Car.

Ladies and Gentlemen, he represents the American Dream, please join me in welcoming
